There but was a draft sanction with the above observation. Mr Krishna Iyengar is a man of substance and both in his communication with the Agl Deptt & on the spot much note in allowing him to apply the loan for purposes most convenient to him. But this introduces a most dangerous precedent as it is always desirable to define clearly under all circumstances the conditions of a loan & insist upon a strict adherence to them.

SIR,

With reference to Government Proceedings No.R.2239-40/Agri.12-08-4 dated 7th October 1908, sanctioning the grant of a consolidated loan of Rs.9,000/- to Mr.N.Krishna Iyengar of Oorga--halli for erection of sugar-cane mills &c., I have the honor to submit herewith for the information of Government copy of letter dated 24th ultimo from Mr.Krishna Iyengar stating that owing to adverse season, he has not yet been able to instal the machinery and that he is just now corresponding with the manufacruning firms, with a view to obtain the same. He further states that, under these circumstances, he has utilised the sum of Rs.2,000 already drawn by him in accordance with the previous orders of Government for sinking three irrigation wells and obtaining a centrifugal pump and that he will repay this amount in ten years from June 1911. This may be approved and the amount so utilised may be treated as a separate loan. On receipt of the orders of Government, the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District will be requested to obtain the necessary security and issue a loan order.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Revenue Commissioner.

Submitting for orders of Government a copy of Mr.N.Krishna Iyengar's letter in the matter of loan granted to him for installing a sugar cane mill in his lands.

Letter dated 24th August 1910, from Mr.N.Krishna Iyengar, Oorgahalli Estate, Bidadi Post, to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

1. In Government Order No.954-7/Agri.28-05-5 dated the 20th July ~~1910~~ 1906, a loan of Rs.1,000/- each, was sanctioned to me for (1) setting up a pumping plant and (2) for constructing an irrigation well.

2. This amount was paid to me in June 1907; and as by that time the season for sinking wells had expired and the amount was lying idle with me, I requested permission to utilise it for the purchase of an evaporating plant for use in the manufacture of sugar. Government were pleased to accord the permission in their Proceedings No.R.4030-1/Agri.44-07-2 dated 4th January 1908. On the 25th July of the same year you were pleased to recommend to me the grant of an additional loan of Rs.7,000/-, but the Government sanctioned a loan of Rs.3000/- only, making a total loan of Rs.5,000/-. On a further representation of the inadequacy of this amount for the purchase of the machinery, the full amount of the further loan recommended by you on July 1908 was sanctioned in Government Order No.R.2239-40/Agri.12-08-4 dated the 7th October 1908. Unfortunately however, the amount could not be utilised owing to the necessity of milling my canes much earlier than I expected to do in consequence of drought. In the year 1909 I could not for the same reason raise any crop on my estate. To guard against the repitition of such mishaps, however, I availed myself of this favourable season to sink three large wells ~~and~~ and properly revet them. The dimensions of these wells are 50 yds X 25 yds X 4 yds, 25 yds X 25 yds X 4 yds and 20 yds X 20 yds X 4 yds. I have recently purchased a centrifugal pump and it is now set up and in working order. The wells and pumps have in all cost me Rs.4,000/- I have been able to accomplish this by using the Rs.2,000/- loaned to me in July 1906. I beg under the circumstances that I may be allowed to repay this amount as per condition already stipulated xx viz. in 10 annual instalments the first instalment to commence at the end of June 191[illegible]. The balance of Rs.7,000/- has not been drawn by me. I am yet corresponding with manufacturing firms about machinery for making sugar.

Mr. Krishna Iyengar was first granted a loan Rs 2000 for sinking irrigation wells and for purchasing a pumper plant. He was subsequently permitted to utilize the above loan for purchasing an evaporating plant in connection with manufacture of sugar. A further loan of Rs 7000 was sanctioned to him for the same purpose. The first loan of Rs 2000 is stated to have been drawn by him on the 31st May 1907.

2. He now states that owing to the adverse season of 1908-09, he was not able to instal the sugar machinery and that he is still corresponding with manufacturing firms to get the same. In the meanwhile he has utilized the sum of Rs 2000/- already drawn by him, for sinking three irrigation wells & obtaining a centrifugal pump, and now requests that he may be allowed to repay that amount in 10 years with effect from June 1911. The Rev. Comm. recommends that this may be done, the amount being treated as a separate loan.

3. Put up with reference to the above letter of the Collector of Kistna forwarding the application of Mr Krishna Iyengar for the grant of a loan of Rs 2000/- under the ordinary rules, the loan having been utilized in the manner stated above, but observe that the sanction of Govt might have been obtained before the amount was utilized for purposes other than that for which it was sanctioned, and that it is desirable to insist on a rigid adherence to the conditions under which a loan is granted, under all circumstances.

4. The amount of Rs 2000 will be treated as a Separate loan repayable in 10 annual instalments with Effect from June 1911 at the usual rate of interest. The Dy Comm^r is requested to take the necessary security bond under the revised rules from Mr Krishna Iyengar at a very early date, and recover from him the interest on Rs 2000 for the 3 years from June 1907 to June 1910, if it has not already been recovered.

5. The further loan to be drawn by Mr Krishna Iyengar for the erection of an evaporating plant will hereby be limited to Rs 7000.
